

Mystery Photo Challenge

Do you know what is shown in this photo?

Architects, Interns & Students enjoying Design Retreat 2016.

Last month, Fred Butters, FAIA stumped us all! The correct answer is: the Pelkie Schoolhouse Museum in Baraga.

Please submit a photo here to be featured as next month's Mystery Photo!

2016 ArchiTreks

Watch a young architect act as the host and excite the watchers and on-site participants about an activity involving a scientific principle that leads to a short explanation or experiment. This years topics: Shapes, Structures, Landmarks and Preservation.

Check out the new and updated 2016 ArchiTreks videos!

U of D Mercy SOA Lecture Series

In This Issue

Mystery Photo Challenge

2016 Architreks

UofD SOA Lecture Series

HGTV Urban Oasis

Children's Essential Books of Architecture

AAO

Quick Links:

Michigan Architectural Foundation

AIA Michigan Website

[AIA Michigan Calendar
Online Document Store](#)

AIA Michigan Job

Board

[AIA National Career
Center](#)

Upcoming Events:

U of D SOA Lecture Series:
Steven Haulenbeek
Oct. 26, 2016; 6p; Cranbrook
Art Museum deSalle
Auditorium

Children's Essential Books of Architecture Reception
Oct. 27, 2016, time: TBD

AAO Design Matters
Conference - Miami, FL
Nov. 2-4, 2016

U of D SOA Lecture Series:
Lorcan O'Herlihy
Nov. 16, 2016; 5:30p; SOA

U of D SOA Lecture Series:
Dirk Denison
January 18, 2017; 5:30p;
SOA

MAF is proud to support the University of Detroit Mercy School of Architecture's 2016/2017 Lecture Series. September's lectures included the Detroit Design Festival featuring UN Creative Cities Network moderated by Maurice Cox. Also featured were lectures by Elizabeth Mossop of Spackman Mossop and Micahels and a Panel Discussion with 4 Detroit innovators and a special exhibit of 30 recent alumni who have an impact on Detroit's resurgence. To learn more about the Lecture Series click here.

HGTV Urban Oasis

HGTV has revealed its new Urban Oasis house located in Ann Arbor, MI. Dawn

Zuber, AIA, of Studio Z Architecture worked with local contractors and HGTV to design and renovate the 1,500 square foot bungalow in Ann Arbor's Water Hill neighborhood. The house, valued at more than $700,000, will be up for grabs in the Urban Oasis Sweepstakes. You can enter, from October 4 - November 22, for your chance to win here. To learn more about the house, click here.

Children's Essential Books of Architecture

Save the Date for the Children's Essential Books of Architecture Reception coming this October 27, 2016. More information will arrive in your inboxes soon.

To view the 100 Essential Books of Architecture, click here.

Association Of Architecture Organizations

Did you know that the Michigan Architectural Foundation is a member of the Association of Connect to MAF!

Welcome to Michigan Architectural Foundation's e-newsletter! This monthly publication connects architectural enthusiasts and supporters, educators, and the media with Michigan's architecture through feature stories about architectural treasures, and opportunities for you to participate in programs, lectures, events and tours.

Architecture Organizations (AAO)? The AAO is a member-based network that connects the many organizations around the world dedicated to enhancing public dialogue about architecture and design. Founded in 2009, AAO currently serves nonprofit architectural organizations and interested individuals in 75 cities across the United States and 10 countries. Members include architecture centers, design professionals, architecture and design schools, educators, historic preservation trusts, design advocacy and urban planning organizations, and museums with architecture collections. Taken collectively, AAO Member organizations conduct public programs that reach an estimated annual audience of 4.5 million children and adult learners.

To learn more about the AAO visit their website here.